SUMMIT COUNTY RESOURCE ALLOCATION PARK (SCRAP), SUMMIT COUNTY GOVERNMENT
REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL
SURVEYING SERVICES

Summit County Government is seeking proposals from qualified and licensed land surveyors to provide professional on-call land surveying services for the Summit County Resource Allocation Park (SCRAP) located at 639 Landfill Road Dillon, CO 80435. Services consist of landfill certification, construction staking, quality assurance, drone surveying, aerial photography, and general surveying services.

Submit questions regarding the proposals to Bill.Schenk@summitcountyco.gov and Amanda.McQueer@summitcountyco.gov. Deadline for questions is 12:00pm MST April 30th, 2026.

Said proposals will be accepted by electronic submission to Bill.Schenk@summitcountyco.gov and Amanda.McQueer@summitcountyco.gov or by hardcopy until 12:00pm MST/MDT on Thursday May 14th, 2026.

At said time and place, all proposals that have been duly received will be publicly opened in person and read aloud. The Contract will be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder who best meets the requirement of Summit County and the public interest.

The Summit County Board of County Commissioners reserves the right to reject any or all proposals, to waive irregularities or informalities, and to conduct such investigations or negotiations as it deems necessary to select the most responsible and responsive bid.
